

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Special Education Needs Coordinator (SENCO) position at Waitakere College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to support and enhance your inclusive education approach.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with learners diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Holding a Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic qualifications and practical expertise to this role.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning environments that enable students with special educational needs to thrive. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies. Throughout my career, I have consistently developed individualized learning plans that maximize student potential and promote meaningful educational engagement.

Waitakere College's reputation for inclusive and supportive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating learning environments where every student can succeed, regardless of their unique challenges. My approach combines compassionate understanding with evidence-based pedagogical strategies.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your exceptional educational team. My multilingual background and extensive special education expertise position me as a strong candidate who can make a significant positive impact.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my background aligns with Waitakere College's educational vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
