

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Turanga Tauawhi Tamariki - SENCO position at Te Wharekura o Ruatoki. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am committed to creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for tamariki with diverse educational needs.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive expertise in supporting students with a wide range of neurodevelopmental conditions, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Through my Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current NZ Teaching Registration, I have developed sophisticated strategies for curriculum adaptation and individualized learning support.

My professional approach is deeply rooted in understanding each learner's unique potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication abilities, ensuring no child is left behind in their educational journey. I am particularly skilled in developing personalized behavior modification strategies and creating adaptive learning environments that celebrate neurodiversity.

Te Wharekura o Ruatoki's commitment to inclusive education resonates profoundly with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience and passionate approach to supporting tamariki with special educational needs in your school community.

I am confident that my background, specialized skills, and unwavering dedication to inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to discussing how my experience aligns with your school's vision and needs.

Kind regards,
