

Here's the cover letter based on the provided details:

Subject: Application for Kaiako Position - Maternity Leave Cover

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Kaiako position at Takapuna Learning Space. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to provide exceptional educational support during this maternity leave cover.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive expertise supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me to immediately contribute to your learning environment.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible and supportive learning experiences for all students. I pride myself on developing inclusive classroom environments that celebrate each learner's unique potential.

Having worked extensively with learners requiring additional educational support, I understand the importance of patience, creativity, and personalized teaching approaches. My experience has equipped me to design flexible learning programs that accommodate diverse learning styles and needs.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to bring my international experience and specialized skills to Takapuna Learning Space. My multicultural background and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with the role's requirements.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my qualifications and experience can contribute to your educational team. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com