

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Te Kura o Hau Karetu (Trentham School). With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a comprehensive and compassionate approach to learning support.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating individualized learning strategies. My experience spans working with students across various developmental stages, always prioritizing their unique strengths and potential. I am particularly skilled at designing inclusive educational experiences that empower students to achieve their maximum learning potential.

Trentham School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your learning support team, bringing not only my technical skills but also my genuine passion for supporting students with special educational needs.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in developing adaptive learning approaches would be valuable assets to your school community. I am eager to discuss how my skills and experience align with Te Kura o Hau Karetu's educational goals.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can contribute to your school's supportive learning environment.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
