

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the teaching position at Onslow College, and I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education to your school community.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I bring a passionate commitment to inclusive education and supporting diverse learners. My background in Special Educational Needs, particularly working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning support.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I am fully qualified to deliver high-quality, inclusive educational experiences. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to supporting communication and learning for all students, regardless of their abilities.

My teaching philosophy centers on creating supportive, engaging learning environments that celebrate each student's unique potential. Throughout my career, I have developed expertise in behavior modification strategies, early childhood development, and creating adaptive learning experiences that meet individual student needs.

Onslow College's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive practices deeply resonates with my professional values. I am particularly impressed by the school's approach to supporting diverse learners and believe my skills would be a valuable addition to your team.

I am eager to discuss how my qualifications and experience align with your school's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to your school community.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
