

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCo) position at Takanini School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to support and enhance inclusive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive expertise in supporting students with various special educational requirements, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a deep understanding of curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies that promote student growth and potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a holistic and specialized approach to supporting learners with special educational needs. My experience has consistently demonstrated my commitment to creating inclusive, supportive, and adaptive learning environments that celebrate each student's unique abilities.

Key strengths I would bring to Takanini School include:

- Advanced skills in behavior modification techniques

- Extensive experience in developing personalized learning plans

- Proven track record of supporting students with diverse learning challenges

- Strong communication and collaboration skills with students, families, and multidisciplinary teams

I am particularly drawn to Takanini School's commitment to inclusive education and am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your supportive learning community. My passion for special education, combined with my professional skills, makes me an ideal candidate for this role.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my experience and skills align with Takanini School's educational vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar

henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com