

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Tongariro School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role.

Throughout my career, I have developed extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My comprehensive background in curriculum adaptation and learning support has consistently enabled me to create inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower students to reach their full potential.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a holistic and specialized approach to learning support. My professional toolkit includes advanced skills in behavior modification, individualized education planning, and collaborative intervention strategies that support both students and their educators.

I am particularly drawn to Tongariro School's commitment to inclusive education and the opportunity to make a meaningful difference in students' educational journeys. My multicultural background and bilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) further enhance my ability to communicate effectively and compassionately with students, families, and colleagues.

My professional philosophy centers on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating tailored support strategies that foster independence, confidence, and academic growth. I am excited about the possibility of contributing my skills and experience to your dedicated educational team.

I look forward to discussing how my background aligns with Tongariro School's learning support objectives and would welcome the opportunity to further explore this role.

Kind regards,
