Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Literacy Support Teacher position at Middleton Grange School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with the requirements of this specialized role.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive work with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My NZ Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, equip me with unique skills to provide inclusive, adaptive educational support.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust strategies for curriculum adaptation and learning support, focusing on individualised approaches that empower students to achieve their maximum potential. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has consistently demonstrated my commitment to creating supportive, engaging learning environments.

The opportunity to contribute to a special project at Middleton Grange School is particularly exciting. Your school's reputation for inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy of providing tailored, compassionate learning experiences.

I am particularly drawn to this role's focus on literacy support for Years 1-6, where foundational skills are critically developed. My multilingual background and specialized training enable me to implement innovative, student-centered literacy strategies.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's educational objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
