

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Maori position at Auckland Normal Intermediate. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive and dynamic learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, creating tailored learning experiences that promote individual growth and academic success. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have further enhanced my ability to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication needs.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I am well-prepared to deliver high-quality, culturally responsive education. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently enabled me to create supportive, engaging classroom environments where every student can thrive.

I am particularly drawn to Auckland Normal Intermediate's commitment to inclusive education and am passionate about fostering an environment where all learners can achieve their full potential. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive special education experience, positions me to provide nuanced, empathetic support to your diverse student population.

My professional philosophy centers on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating personalized learning pathways that celebrate individual differences. I am committed to collaborative teaching practices and continuous professional development.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with the Kaiako Maori role at Auckland Normal Intermediate.

Kind regards,
