

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Year 3 or 4 classroom teaching position at Coatesville School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a robust foundation for delivering high-quality, adaptive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, inclusive teaching practices that ensure all learners can engage meaningfully with educational content.

Coatesville School's reputation for supporting holistic student development resonates strongly with my educational philosophy. I am particularly passionate about creating inclusive classrooms where individual differences are celebrated and every child is supported to learn and grow.

My multilingual background and international teaching experience have equipped me with versatile pedagogical approaches that can engage and inspire young learners. I am eager to bring my expertise in early childhood development and special educational needs to your school community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Coatesville School's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
