

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako wharekura - Tau 8 position at TKKM o Taumarere. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your respected school.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, particularly supporting learners with diverse educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and creating supportive, engaging classroom environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, complemented by Makaton and Sign Language certifications, I bring comprehensive skills to support diverse learning requirements. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has consistently enabled me to design responsive, compassionate educational interventions.

TKKM o Taumarere's commitment to holistic, culturally responsive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating inclusive learning spaces that celebrate each student's unique strengths and potential. My multilingual background and extensive experience in specialized education align seamlessly with your school's values and educational approach.

I am confident that my skills, experience, and dedication would make a meaningful contribution to your school community. I look forward to discussing how my background can support your educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
