Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Resource Teacher: Learning and Behaviour (LTR) position at Taumarunui High School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply aligned with the requirements of this role. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive and adaptive educational approaches.

Throughout my career, I have consistently developed and implemented tailored learning strategies that support students' individual developmental needs. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning environments that enable every student to achieve their potential. My experience spans multiple educational contexts, with a particular strength in developing individualized educational plans and providing targeted learning support.

Taumarunui High School's commitment to inclusive education resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am particularly enthusiastic about the opportunity to work with your team in supporting students' learning and behavioral needs during this fixed-term position.

My multilingual background and comprehensive understanding of special educational strategies position me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am confident that my skills, experience, and passion for inclusive education will make a meaningful contribution to your school community.

I look forward to discussing how my background and expertise can support your students and team.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
