

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at St Peter's College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute significantly to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a robust foundation for effective learning support coordination.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning strategies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can access educational opportunities.

St Peter's College's reputation for compassionate, student-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to apply my extensive experience in developing comprehensive support frameworks that empower students with special educational needs to achieve their full potential.

My approach combines deep pedagogical knowledge with genuine empathy, allowing me to design personalized learning experiences that address individual student requirements. I am skilled at collaborating with teachers, parents, and specialist professionals to create holistic support networks.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with St Peter's College's learning support goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
