Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A teaching position at Frimley School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with your school's commitment to nurturing every child's potential.

My professional background is distinguished by extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Having completed my Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and obtained full New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive understanding of adaptive teaching strategies and curriculum modification.

My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to creating inclusive learning environments where every student can communicate and engage effectively. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed individualised learning plans, implemented behaviour modification techniques, and fostered supportive classroom communities that celebrate neurodiversity.

Frimley School's reputation for progressive, student-centred education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in curriculum adaptation, learning support, and creating engaging, differentiated learning experiences.

My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my specialized training in early childhood development and special educational needs, positions me as a uniquely qualified candidate who can support and inspire students across diverse learning profiles.

I am eager to discuss how my experience and passion could contribute to your school's educational mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
