

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Hillview Christian School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique educational journey.

My professional background aligns closely with the requirements of this role. As an educator with extensive experience working with students with diverse learning needs--including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities--I bring a comprehensive understanding of inclusive educational practices. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current NZ Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for supporting students with complex learning requirements.

My expertise extends beyond traditional teaching methods. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and ensuring every student can effectively engage with their learning environment. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed and implemented curriculum adaptations that enable students with diverse abilities to achieve meaningful educational outcomes.

Hillview Christian School's commitment to holistic, supportive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills in behavior modification, early childhood development, and learning support to your dynamic educational community.

My multicultural background and multilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) further enhance my ability to communicate effectively and sensitively with students, families, and colleagues.

I am enthusiastic about the possibility of bringing my expertise to Hillview Christian School and would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience could contribute to your learning support program.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
