

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the SENCO / Learning Centre - Te Whare Akoranga Teacher position at Epsom Girls Grammar School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise in inclusive education and specialized learning support would be a valuable asset to your institution.

My professional background is specifically aligned with supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, creating adaptive learning environments that promote individual growth and academic success. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication approaches.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic qualifications and practical experience to this role. My approach combines evidence-based intervention strategies with compassionate, student-centered teaching methodology. I excel at curriculum adaptation and developing individualized educational plans that support each student's unique learning profile.

Epsom Girls Grammar School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive learning particularly resonates with me. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in creating supportive, engaging learning experiences that empower students with special educational needs to reach their full potential.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in behavior modification strategies would allow me to provide comprehensive support within your Learning Centre. I am passionate about fostering an environment of respect, understanding, and academic achievement for all students.

I look forward to discussing how my background and expertise can contribute to your school's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
