

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Sunnyvale School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach combines specialized educational strategies with compassionate, student-centered support to maximize each learner's potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive theoretical knowledge but also practical, hands-on experience in curriculum adaptation and inclusive education practices. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to ensuring accessible learning for all students.

My key strengths include developing individualized learning plans, implementing behavior modification techniques, and collaborating closely with families, teachers, and support professionals to create holistic educational experiences. I am particularly skilled at designing adaptive learning environments that support students' unique developmental needs.

Sunnyvale School's reputation for progressive, inclusive education aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy and passion for supporting learners with special educational requirements. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dedicated team and help students achieve their full potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could support Sunnyvale School's learning support objectives.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
