

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Maori position at Auckland Normal Intermediate. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have been instrumental in creating adaptive, communicative learning spaces that support every child's unique learning journey.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I understand the critical importance of culturally responsive and inclusive pedagogical approaches. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently enabled students to achieve their maximum potential, regardless of their individual learning challenges.

Auckland Normal Intermediate's commitment to holistic education resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am particularly passionate about creating learning environments that celebrate diversity, foster individual strengths, and provide targeted support for every student.

My bilingual capability in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive special education background, positions me uniquely to support your school's educational objectives. I am eager to bring my skills, experience, and genuine passion for inclusive education to your team.

I look forward to discussing how my background and expertise align with Auckland Normal Intermediate's educational vision.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
