

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the 0.6 FTTE Classroom Release Teacher position at Te Kura o Ohinetahi - Governors Bay. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to provide exceptional educational support and inclusive learning experiences for your students.

My professional background encompasses extensive work with diverse learning needs, particularly supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me to deliver high-quality, adaptive educational strategies tailored to individual student requirements.

Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive skills in curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and creating inclusive learning environments. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to ensuring every student can access and engage with educational content, regardless of their communication challenges.

Te Kura o Ohinetahi's reputation for inclusive and student-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my specialized skills to your school's learning community, bringing a compassionate and innovative approach to classroom release teaching.

My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans, coupled with my extensive experience in early childhood development and learning support, allows me to connect with students from various backgrounds and learning profiles.

I am eager to discuss how my qualifications and passion for inclusive education align with your school's goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
