

01 December 2025

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the English teaching position at Lynfield College, as advertised on 01 December 2025. With 18+ years of experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my skills and expertise align excellently with your school's requirements.

My professional background is distinguished by extensive experience in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of inclusive education practices and curriculum adaptation.

My qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2), which enable me to create highly inclusive learning environments that support students with varied communication needs. My approach focuses on personalized learning strategies that empower every student to achieve their full potential.

Currently based in South Africa, I am prepared to relocate to New Zealand within six weeks of job confirmation. I am already working with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth and efficient transition, demonstrating my commitment to joining your educational community.

Lynfield College's commitment to comprehensive education across Years 7-15 deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about contributing to a dynamic learning environment that values individual student growth and holistic development.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to Lynfield College's educational mission.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
