Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Graduate Teacher position at Te Puna Reo o Te Ahi Kaikoura a Tama ki Te Rangi. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional journey has been deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My comprehensive background, coupled with my New Zealand Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and inclusive educational practices.

My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible learning experiences for all students. I have consistently developed individualized learning strategies that support each child's unique strengths and challenges, ensuring every student can meaningfully engage with their educational journey.

Te Puna Reo o Te Ahi Kaikoura a Tama ki Te Rangi's commitment to holistic, student-centered education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your school's approach to nurturing each learner's potential and creating a supportive, inclusive classroom environment.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized training, and genuine passion for inclusive education make me an excellent candidate for this role. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and background align with your school's vision and needs.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
