Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Part-Time Teacher position at Wakefield School/Tahunanui School, as advertised with reference #1HAqnu. With 18+ years of specialized experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is particularly well-aligned with your school's needs. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive expertise in supporting diverse learning needs, especially for students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further enhance my ability to create adaptive, inclusive classroom experiences.

Currently based in South Africa, I am actively working with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth relocation to New Zealand within six weeks of confirmation. My comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies makes me an ideal candidate for supporting students' holistic development.

Your school's commitment to comprehensive education across multiple learning areas resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly enthusiastic about integrating health, physical education, mathematics, and social sciences in a manner that engages and supports every learner's unique potential.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs position me to bring innovative, compassionate teaching approaches to your team. I am eager to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to Wakefield School's educational excellence.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support your school's learning community.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
