

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y2-3 classroom teaching position at Birkenhead School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive, supportive learning environments would be a valuable asset to your school community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in creating adaptive, nurturing learning spaces, particularly for students with diverse educational needs. Throughout my career, I have specialized in supporting children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing personalized learning strategies that maximize each student's potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every child can access and engage with curriculum content.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic preparation and practical expertise to the classroom. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, positive behavior modification, and recognizing the unique learning profile of each child. I am particularly skilled at designing differentiated learning experiences that support individual growth while maintaining classroom cohesion.

Birkenhead School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to holistic student development strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, particularly in creating an inclusive, supportive Y2-3 classroom environment that celebrates each student's unique capabilities.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and approach could support your school's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
