Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Special Needs Classroom Teacher positions at Te Whirika Sara Cohen Specialist School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My extensive background includes specialized work with students across multiple neurodevelopmental conditions, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Having completed my Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and holding current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive and compassionate approach to supporting learners with unique educational requirements.

My professional expertise extends beyond traditional teaching methodologies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) demonstrate my commitment to diverse communication strategies, ensuring every student can effectively engage and express themselves. I excel in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and developing personalized learning support plans that maximize each student's potential.

Te Whirika Sara Cohen Specialist School's reputation for exceptional special needs education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in creating adaptive, nurturing classroom environments that celebrate individual learning differences.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in inclusive education make me a unique and valuable candidate for these positions. I am eager to bring my passion, expertise, and innovative teaching strategies to your exceptional school.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my experience aligns with your educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
