

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Classroom Kaiako position at Whangarei Intermediate. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, with extensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a nuanced approach to curriculum adaptation and inclusive education that empowers every student to reach their full potential.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a comprehensive skill set to classroom instruction. My approach combines evidence-based teaching strategies with compassionate, individualized support. I am particularly skilled in behavior modification, learning support, and creating adaptive learning environments that meet the unique needs of each student.

Whangarei Intermediate's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning spaces where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual challenges or learning differences.

My multicultural background and multilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect with diverse student populations and foster an inclusive classroom culture. I am eager to bring my extensive experience, specialized skills, and genuine passion for education to your school community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise align with Whangarei Intermediate's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
