

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A classroom teacher positions at Dalefield School for Years 0-6. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my skills and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with your school's needs.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with students across the autism spectrum, those with Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing individualized learning strategies that promote academic and social growth. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have been instrumental in creating inclusive, communicative classroom environments.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and evidence-based learning support techniques. My experience spans comprehensive curriculum implementation, behaviour modification strategies, and creating supportive learning environments that enable every child to thrive.

I am particularly drawn to Dalefield School's commitment to inclusive education and holistic student development. My multilingual background and extensive experience in differentiated instruction would allow me to contribute meaningfully to your school's educational approach.

My approach combines professional expertise with genuine care, ensuring that each student receives personalized, compassionate support. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills, experience, and passion to your team and contribute to your students' educational journey.

I look forward to discussing how my background can support Dalefield School's educational objectives.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
