

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y1-8 science/STEM teaching position at KingsWay School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, dynamic learning environments that support every student's unique potential.

My comprehensive background in special educational needs, including extensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with exceptional skills in curriculum adaptation and inclusive teaching strategies. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current NZ Teaching Registration, demonstrates my commitment to delivering high-quality, research-informed educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed a robust skill set in differentiated instruction, particularly in STEM disciplines. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further underscore my ability to communicate and engage with diverse learners, ensuring every student can access and participate in scientific learning. My approach focuses on creating engaging, accessible learning experiences that spark curiosity and critical thinking.

KingsWay School's reputation for innovative and student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in science education and inclusive teaching practices to your dynamic school community. My background in behavior modification and early childhood development would be particularly valuable in creating a supportive, stimulating learning environment.

I am confident that my qualifications, passion for education, and commitment to student success make me an ideal candidate for this position. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with KingsWay School's educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
