

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the Junior School-tagged Teacher position at Christ the King Catholic School, with a genuine passion for inclusive education and supporting diverse learners. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's educational environment.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies that ensure every student can meaningfully engage with learning.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive international experience but also a rigorous understanding of curriculum adaptation and differentiated instruction. My approach emphasizes creating supportive, engaging learning environments where every child can achieve their potential, regardless of their individual challenges.

My professional skills include specialized behavior modification techniques, deep understanding of early childhood development, and a student-centred pedagogical approach. I am particularly skilled at developing individualized learning plans that accommodate diverse learning styles and support students' holistic development.

Christ the King Catholic School's commitment to inclusive education resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and collaborate with your dedicated teaching team to support student success.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
