

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teaching position at Ormond Kindergarten. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every child to reach their full potential.

My professional background is uniquely positioned to support diverse learning needs. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I have extensive expertise in working with students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every child can participate fully in their learning journey.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My approach focuses on recognizing each child's unique strengths and creating tailored educational strategies that foster confidence, independence, and academic growth. I pride myself on building positive, nurturing relationships with students, their families, and educational support teams.

My professional philosophy centers on creating an inclusive, engaging classroom environment where every child feels valued, understood, and supported. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to bring my specialized skills and compassionate teaching approach to Ormond Kindergarten.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized qualifications, and genuine passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this position. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with your school's educational goals.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
