

Tena koe,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako position at Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu, where I believe my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education will be a valuable asset to your educational team.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I have developed a deep expertise in inclusive education and supporting students with diverse learning needs. My background specifically includes comprehensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, enabling me to create adaptive and supportive learning environments that celebrate each student's unique potential.

My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, has equipped me with robust pedagogical skills and a comprehensive understanding of curriculum development. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies that support diverse learner needs.

Throughout my career, I have consistently focused on curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating individualized learning pathways. My approach emphasizes holistic student development, recognizing that every child has distinctive strengths and learning requirements.

Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu's commitment to inclusive and innovative education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills, passion, and international perspective to your organization.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and qualifications align with your educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
