

Here's the cover letter:

Tena koe,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Tunga Kaiako Tau 7-8 position at TKKM o Te Wai o Ngati Porou. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Educational Needs teaching, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My professional background is uniquely positioned to contribute meaningfully to your school's educational mission. As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, I bring a comprehensive and compassionate approach to teaching.

My expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and specialised communication strategies - including Makaton and Sign Language certification - enables me to design responsive, individualised learning experiences. I understand the critical importance of recognising and nurturing each student's unique strengths and learning pathways.

The opportunity to join TKKM o Te Wai o Ngati Porou particularly excites me. Your commitment to culturally responsive education and holistic student development aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy. I am eager to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for supporting akonga in their educational journey.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills could support your school's goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
