

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator (LSC) and Casual Relief/Permanent Release Teacher position at Westport North School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with your school's inclusive educational approach.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive work with diverse learner needs, particularly specialising in supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust professional foundation complemented by additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language.

Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated excellence in curriculum adaptation, learning support strategies, and creating inclusive classroom environments. My approach prioritises individualised learning pathways, behaviour modification techniques, and collaborative engagement with students, families, and support networks. My Makaton and Sign Language qualifications further enhance my ability to communicate effectively with students experiencing communication challenges.

Westport North School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning spaces where every student can thrive, regardless of their unique learning profile. My experience in special educational needs, combined with my adaptable teaching methodologies, positions me as an ideal candidate for this role.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your school community and would welcome the chance to discuss how my background could support your educational objectives.

Warm regards,
