Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Scale A teaching position at Frimley School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your educational community.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education, particularly supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach combines specialized teaching strategies, curriculum adaptation, and compassionate behavioral support to ensure every child can access quality learning experiences.

My qualifications align perfectly with this role. I hold a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and am fully NZ Teaching Registered. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications (Modules 1 & 2) demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive pedagogical practices.

Having worked across complex educational environments, I understand the importance of creating supportive, engaging classroom settings where every student can thrive. My skills in curriculum modification and individualized learning support have consistently enabled students to achieve significant developmental and academic milestones.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to join Frimley School, where I believe my background in special educational needs and foundation phase teaching can make a substantial difference. My multicultural and multilingual background (fluent in English and Afrikaans) further enhances my ability to connect with diverse student populations.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and passion for education could contribute to your school's mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
