Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y3-4 teaching position at Arrowtown School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational community.

My professional journey has been deeply rooted in inclusive education, with a specialized focus on supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, creating adaptive learning environments that celebrate individual strengths and potential.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust academic and professional foundation to my teaching practice. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can access learning effectively.

My approach to teaching is built on understanding each child's unique learning profile. I excel in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning experiences that engage and inspire young learners. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans also allows me to connect with diverse student populations.

Arrowtown School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to student-centered learning deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your school's inclusive approach and would be honored to contribute my extensive experience to your teaching team.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and passion can support your students' educational journey.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
