

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Deputy Principal/Special Educational Needs Coordinator (DP/SENCO) position at Katikati Primary School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute significantly to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a professionally registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase), I bring a robust understanding of curriculum adaptation and inclusive educational strategies.

My extensive experience includes developing individualised learning plans, implementing behaviour modification techniques, and creating supportive classroom environments that enable every student to thrive. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive practice.

Katikati Primary School's reputation for nurturing holistic student development resonates deeply with my educational philosophy. I am passionate about creating learning spaces where every child feels valued, supported, and empowered to reach their full potential.

My background in special educational needs, combined with my strong pedagogical skills, positions me as an ideal candidate to support your school's commitment to inclusive education. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my expertise, compassion, and innovative teaching approaches to your team.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with Katikati Primary School's educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
