

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Primary Teacher position at Ashburton Christian School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every child to reach their full potential.

My extensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs--including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities--aligns seamlessly with your school's commitment to comprehensive, compassionate education. My qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, demonstrate my professional expertise and commitment to educational excellence.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, learning support, and behavior modification. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication needs. I pride myself on designing personalized learning strategies that celebrate each student's unique strengths and support their individual learning journey.

Ashburton Christian School's reputation for nurturing holistic student development deeply resonates with my educational philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for inclusive education to your school community.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs make me a versatile and empathetic educator committed to creating positive, engaging learning experiences for all students.

I am eager to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your school's mission and would welcome the opportunity to meet with you.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
