

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Browns Bay School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an exceptional candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only formal qualifications but a genuine commitment to creating supportive, adaptive learning environments.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and comprehensive learning support strategies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language training further demonstrate my ability to communicate effectively with students who have unique communication requirements. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed individualized education plans that maximize student potential and promote inclusive classroom experiences.

Browns Bay School's reputation for compassionate, student-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills to your learning support team and help create an environment where every student can thrive.

My comprehensive background, combined with my NZ Teaching Registration and specialized certifications, positions me to make a meaningful impact in supporting students with diverse learning needs. I am eager to bring my multilingual capabilities and deep understanding of early childhood development to your school community.

I look forward to discussing how my experience and passion align with Browns Bay School's educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
