

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior School-tagged teaching position at Christ the King Catholic School in Owairaka. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive and supportive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to inclusive education that focuses on curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and positive behavior modification techniques. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible communication and supporting students with varied communication needs.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust educational foundation and a proven track record of creating nurturing, engaging classroom environments. My experience spans curriculum design, learning support, and implementing specialized educational strategies that enable every student to reach their full potential.

Christ the King Catholic School's reputation for compassionate, student-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in special educational needs and early childhood development to your school community.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in differentiated instruction position me as an ideal candidate who can support diverse learning requirements with empathy, skill, and dedication.

I look forward to discussing how my qualifications align with your school's vision and the specific needs of your junior school students.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
