Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator (LSC) position at Rangitoto School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique educational journey.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the critical needs of a Learning Support Coordinator. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach combines specialized educational strategies with genuine compassion, ensuring that each student can access and engage with the curriculum effectively.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a multifaceted skill set to supporting students with complex learning requirements. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently enabled students to achieve meaningful educational progress and develop essential life skills.

Rangitoto School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in learning support, collaborate with dedicated educators, and make a significant difference in students' educational experiences.

My multilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive special education background, position me as a unique and valuable candidate for this role. I am confident that my skills, experience, and genuine passion for supporting diverse learners would be an asset to your school community.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with Rangitoto School's vision and the Learning Support Coordinator role.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
