

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Leader (SENCO) / Scale A teacher position at Onehunga Primary School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me uniquely to provide comprehensive learning support. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications enable me to communicate effectively with students who have diverse communication requirements.

Throughout my career, I have developed extensive expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating inclusive classroom strategies. My approach is always child-centered, focusing on individual strengths and potential. I pride myself on designing personalised learning experiences that empower students to achieve their maximum potential, regardless of their learning challenges.

Onehunga Primary School's commitment to inclusive education aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy and extensive experience. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills in learning support and special educational needs to your dynamic educational community.

My multilingual background and international teaching experience have equipped me with a nuanced understanding of diverse learning environments. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging, and adaptive learning spaces where every student can thrive.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my qualifications and experience can support Onehunga Primary School's learning support goals.

Kind regards,
