Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior Class Teacher position at Henderson South School, commencing 02 February 2026. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with your school's commitment to inclusive, supportive learning environments.

My background encompasses comprehensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Having completed my Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and holding current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust academic and practical foundation to classroom instruction.

My professional journey has been characterized by curriculum adaptation, personalized learning strategies, and creating engaging, accessible educational experiences. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive education. I excel at developing tailored learning approaches that support every student's unique potential.

Henderson South School's reputation for nurturing individual student growth resonates deeply with my educational philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my specialized skills to your Year 1 class, where early intervention and supportive learning can profoundly impact students' educational trajectories.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in behavior modification and early childhood development position me as a versatile and empathetic educator ready to make a meaningful contribution to your school community.

I look forward to discussing how my qualifications and passion for inclusive education can benefit Henderson South School.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
