Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Cobden School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the critical requirements of this role. As a registered teacher with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, I bring a comprehensive and compassionate approach to learning support. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my Makaton and Sign Language certifications, demonstrates my commitment to creating accessible and adaptive learning experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies. My approach focuses on identifying each student's unique strengths and providing targeted support to help them achieve their full potential. My experience in inclusive education has consistently shown me that with the right support, every student can thrive.

Cobden School's commitment to supporting diverse learners resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating inclusive classrooms where every student feels valued, supported, and empowered to learn. My professional background and personal dedication make me an ideal candidate for this part-time Learning Support Coordinator role.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to Cobden School's learning support objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
