

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Structured Literacy Intervention Kaiako position at Te Kura o Pakipaki. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current NZ Teaching Registration, positions me uniquely to deliver targeted, adaptive literacy interventions.

Throughout my career, I have developed significant expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further enhance my ability to communicate and support students with diverse communication requirements.

I am particularly drawn to Te Kura o Pakipaki's commitment to structured literacy approaches and inclusive education. My experience in designing personalized learning strategies and creating supportive classroom environments aligns perfectly with the goals of this role.

My approach emphasizes holistic student development, focusing on building confidence, fostering independence, and creating engaging, accessible learning experiences. I am committed to continuous professional development and bringing innovative, evidence-based teaching strategies to support each student's unique learning journey.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your educational team and would welcome the chance to discuss how my background could support Te Kura o Pakipaki's literacy intervention goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
