

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior Team Leader / Classroom Teacher position at Porirua School. With 18+ years of specialized experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me to make an immediate and meaningful contribution to your school's educational community.

Throughout my career, I have developed a nuanced approach to curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every child can engage fully in their learning journey. I excel at designing differentiated learning experiences that support students' unique strengths and challenges.

Porirua School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive practices deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my extensive experience in special educational needs, behavior modification, and early childhood development to your team.

My multilingual background and patient, compassionate teaching approach enable me to create welcoming, supportive classroom environments where all students feel valued and capable of learning.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Porirua School's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
