

Tena koe,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako wharekura positions at TKKM o Wairarapa. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every tamariki to reach their full potential.

My extensive background in special educational needs, including supporting learners with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the holistic educational approach I understand TKKM o Wairarapa values. My NZ Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) qualification, coupled with specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, demonstrate my commitment to adaptive and inclusive teaching practices.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning strategies. My approach focuses on recognizing each student's unique strengths and designing supportive learning experiences that celebrate diversity and promote individual growth.

The opportunity to contribute to your kura is particularly exciting. I am deeply committed to te ao Maori educational principles and am eager to continue developing my understanding of culturally responsive teaching methods. My multilingual background and experience working with diverse learners have prepared me to contribute meaningfully to your school community.

I am confident that my professional skills, passion for inclusive education, and genuine commitment to student success make me an excellent candidate for these Kaiako wharekura positions. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills could contribute to TKKM o Wairarapa's educational mission.

Naku iti noa,
