Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako position at Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu, where I believe my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education will be a valuable asset to your inclusive learning environment.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I have developed a profound expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration provide a solid foundation for delivering high-quality, adaptive educational experiences.

My professional journey has been deeply committed to inclusive education. Complementing my teaching qualifications, I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language modules, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication needs. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and positive behavior modification techniques that empower students to reach their full potential.

Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu's commitment to inclusive and personalized education resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning environments that celebrate each student's unique strengths and support their individual learning journey.

I am confident that my bilingual background (English and Afrikaans), specialized training, and extensive experience make me an excellent candidate for this role. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your school's mission and support the holistic development of your students.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with your educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
