

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Classroom Teacher position at Durie Hill School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive and dynamic learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, with extensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach is centred on creating adaptive, supportive learning experiences that enable every child to reach their full potential. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring all students can engage meaningfully in the classroom.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum design and implementation. My experience in curriculum adaptation and behaviour modification strategies has consistently supported students in developing academic skills and social competencies.

What particularly attracts me to Durie Hill School is your reputation for fostering an inclusive, supportive learning community. I am passionate about creating environments where every student feels valued, supported, and empowered to learn. My multilingual background and diverse skill set allow me to connect with students from various backgrounds and learning profiles.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized skills, and genuine commitment to student success would make me a valuable addition to your teaching team. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with Durie Hill School's educational philosophy and goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
