

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the ESOL and Learning Support Coordinator position at Clifton Terrace Model School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including expertise in working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me to provide high-quality, specialized educational support.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, learning support strategies, and inclusive educational practices. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible learning experiences for all students, particularly those with communication challenges.

My approach emphasizes individualized learning, behavior modification, and creating supportive classroom environments where every student can thrive. I am particularly passionate about developing comprehensive ESOL strategies that ensure linguistic and academic success for students from diverse backgrounds.

Clifton Terrace Model School's reputation for inclusive and innovative education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise and contribute to your school's mission of supporting every learner's unique potential.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's learning support needs.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
