Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the English teaching position at Rodney College for the upcoming academic year. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school community.

My professional background is particularly well-aligned with inclusive educational practices. Having worked extensively with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, I bring a comprehensive understanding of differentiated instruction and curriculum adaptation. My NZ Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase provide a solid foundation for delivering high-quality, inclusive educational experiences.

My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to supporting students with varied communication needs. I am passionate about creating learning environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual challenges. My approach focuses on building confidence, developing communication skills, and fostering an inclusive classroom culture.

Rodney College's reputation for supporting holistic student development resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to the opportunity to teach English in a dynamic, supportive educational setting and contribute to your school's mission of empowering students.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized skills, and genuine passion for inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background can contribute to your team.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
