Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y4-5 teaching position at Target Road School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education make me an excellent candidate for this role.

My professional journey has been deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have further enhanced my ability to create inclusive, supportive learning environments where every child can thrive.

As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and innovative teaching strategies. My experience in curriculum design, behavior modification, and early childhood development has consistently enabled me to create engaging, personalized learning experiences that meet individual student needs.

Target Road School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience, multilingual skills, and passionate approach to supporting young learners in their educational journey.

My background demonstrates not just theoretical knowledge, but practical, compassionate implementation of inclusive teaching practices. I am eager to bring my expertise to your school and contribute to your students' academic and personal growth.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with Target Road School's educational vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
